MEMORANDUM OF DECISION and
ORDER RE: DAMAGES; and
DIRECTING ENTRY OF
JUDGMENT

By Memorandum of Decision and Order filed September 25, 2003, the Court found in plaintiffs' favor and against defendants; and in counterdefendants' favor and against counterclaims on the counterclaim. The issue of damages remained pending; therefore, plaintiffs were ordered to provide the Court and opposing counsel with their verified calculation of any and all damages sustained in conformity with the Court's Memorandum of Decision and Order. Defendants were given an opportunity to file a response, consistent with the Memorandum of Decision and Order, to plaintiffs' calculation of damages. Plaintiffs filed a reply memorandum. The matter of damages having been fully briefed and finding this matter suitable for determination on the papers submitted and without oral argument pursuant to Civil Local Rule 7.1(d)(1), the Court enters the following Order.

102 EXHIBIT "D"

Discussion

I. Money Damages

Plaintiffs submitted their verified statement of damages on October 14, 2003 to which defendants filed a statement of non-opposition to plaintiffs' damages calculations.¹

In its Memorandum of Decision and Order, the Court found the English Note to be the operative Note. The Note required defendants to pay plaintiffs the principal sum of $550,000.00 plus advances of $192,199.23. Both principal and advances were to bear interest at a rate of 10% per annum. The effective date of the Note was April 1, 1995. Calculated through October 31, 2003, the damages due and owing to plaintiffs are as follows:

Principal	$ 550,000.00
Interest on Principal	472,083.33
Advances	192,199.23
Interest on Advances	142,547.76
Total Due	$1,356,830.32

Prevailing Party

The Court finds and concludes that plaintiffs are the prevailing parties in this action.

17 | Plaintiffs may seek an award of costs under Local Civil Rule 54.1.

Re-registration of Lien

As noted above, defendants do not challenge the mathematical calculation of damages presented by plaintiffs. But defendants assert that plaintiffs are not entitled to "other relief" in the form of reconveyance of the title to the Villa property to plaintiffs and/or the re-registration of the prior lien on the Villa. Plaintiffs contend that re-registration of the lien is appropriate relief and such relief was generally requested in their Complaint. The Court concurs.

The English Note contained terms requiring a first priority lien to be registered in Mexico. At trial, Icenhower testified that the lien had been registered but was released

Defendants reserve their contentions as to "whether or not such interest was due under the terms of the agreements in issue, and [] all of their claims and contentions with respect to the merits of the action pending a determination of whether or not an appeal will be filed." Defendants' Opposition at 2.

1 pursuant to the April 1, 1996 Agreement with Lonic. Lonic agreed to release the lien on the
2 Villa Property for the purpose of effectuating a proposed sale of property to the World
3 Interactive Network ("WIN"). The February 9, 1996 proposal from Icenhower to Lonic also
4 indicated that the lien would be reinstated if the sale fell through. The sale was not
5 consummated. Based on the evidence presented at trial, the Court found that Lonic did not
6 cancel the requirement to re-register the Note obligation based on an alleged oral agreement
7 with Icenhower. The Court specifically found that the failure to re-register the lien constituted
8 a breach of the Agreement on Note contract requiring the lien to be re-registered if the sale was
9 not completed. The Court further found that between Lonic and Icenhower, the lien was
10 effective and constituted a security interest in Icenhower's rights, title or interest in the Villa
11 and Icenhower breached the agreement to re-register the lien when the WIN transaction failed
12 to go forward. The Court now finds that plaintiffs sought all legally available relief in their
13 Complaint, including the re-registration of the lien. Requiring defendants to re-register the lien
14 will function to secure the damages owed to plaintiffs and is an available and appropriate
15 remedy for plaintiffs.

16 The lien on the Villa property was intended to secure the amount due and owing to 17 plaintiffs. Because the Court has found and concluded that defendants were required under the 18 agreement to re-register the lien in the event the property was not sold, defendants will be
19 required to re-register the first priority lien in Mexico in accordance with the Agreement
20 on Note and the Court's Memorandum of Decision and Order until full payment of the 21 damages the Court has awarded plaintiffs is paid in full. Upon defendants' full payment of 22 damages to plaintiffs, the lien shall be released.

23 Conclusion

24 Based on the foregoing, IT IS ORDERED awarding plaintiffs damages in the amount
25 of $550,000.00 in principal; 10% per annum interest on the principal from April 1, 1995;

26 ...

27 ...

28 ...

1 $192,199.23 in advances; 10% per annum interest on the advances from April 1, 1995.²

2 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendants shall re-register the lien on the Villa
3 property within ten (10) days of the filing of this Order. Defendants shall submit evidence of
4 the re-registration of the lien to plaintiffs within ten (10) days of the registration of the lien.
5 Upon full payment of the damages in this matter, plaintiffs shall cause the lien to be released.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that full payment of the damages awarded shall be
7 made within 60 days of the filing of this Order.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in the event defendants fail to pay to plaintiffs the
9 full damages award within the time provided, defendants shall reconvey the Villa property,
10 free of any encumbrance, claim, lien or liability that has been placed upon the property or
11 occasioned by defendants' actions or inactions, to plaintiffs in accordance with the terms of the 12 parties' underlying agreement.

13 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED directing entry of judgment in plaintiffs' favor and
14 against defendants; and in counterdefendants' favor and against counterclaimants on the 15 counterclaim, and awarding damages to plaintiffs in accordance with this Order.

16 IT IS SO ORDERED.

Red Flags for Diaz/Barba

Diaz is first introduced to Jerry Icenhower by Eugene Kocherga in early 2003 to discuss purchase of Villa. Diaz understands at the time that Jerry Icenhower is the owner of the Villa.

Diaz meets Jerry again at the Villa in August '03, the time of Eugene Kocherga's wedding. Diaz talks to the Villa housekeeper, Elba, who tells Diaz that Jerry Icenhower has difficulty paying the bills and always needs money.

Diaz's due diligence reveals that Icenhower is not the owner but is the prior owner of the beneficial trust interest before Howell & Gardner, the current owner. Notwithstanding, Diaz sees Icenhower still in control of the property, receiving the income from the rentals, paying the staff, and is the contact listed on the web site advertising the property: villavistahermosa.com.

Diaz's due diligence reveals that Icenhower had obtained his beneficial trust interest in the Villa from D. Donald Lonie.

More Red Flags for Diaz/Barba

¶ Jerry Icenhower tells Diaz during due diligence that he is in litigation with the Lonie family.

¶ Pending Action No. Lonie et al v. Icenhower, US Dist. Court, SD Cal., 00-CV-612, Lonie v. Icenhower, is a public record.

¶ Despite recently having sold a property valued at $1.5 million in 2002, in October 2003, Icenhower comes to Diaz for a loan.

¶ Diaz agrees to "loan" Icenhower $100,000, with the understanding that the amount will be treated as a down payment towards Diaz's purchase of the Villa Vista Hermosa beneficial trust interest.

¶ Icenhower files bankruptcy in December 2003.

More Red Flags for Diaz/Barba

On December 16, 2003 Diaz receives the Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case, Meeting of Creditors, & Deadlines, including the Debtors' first Meeting of Creditors pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 341. The certificate of service Diaz also received shows that Stephen Lonie and Thos. Lonie Jr. also received notice.

Notice of Bankruptcy Case Filing says: "If you would like to view the bankruptcy petition and other documents filed by the debtor, they are available at our Internet home page <http://www.casb.uscourts.gov> or at the Clerk's Office, Jacob Weinberger U.S. Courthouse, 325 West F Street, San Diego, CA 92101-6991."

Diaz is worried about Icenhower's bankruptcy and has a conversation with Icenhower about it. Icenhower tells Diaz that he was forced to declare bankruptcy because of litigation with the Lonie Trust over the Villa

More Red Flags for Diaz/Barba

¶ Icenhower tells Diaz about the litigation with the Lonie Trust in the Bankruptcy Court. Diaz tells Icenhower that his attorney has told him that transaction cannot be avoided under Mexican law

¶ Icenhower's Petition lists as creditors Stephen Lonie and Thomas Lonie, Jr., and reflects that the obligation was incurred in 1993 "Statement of decision issued; judgment to be entered $1,356,830.00 and lists Lonie et al v. Icenhower, US Dist. Court, SD Cal., 00-CV-612, 11/24/03 "memo decision for plaintiff."

¶ No shareholder authorization was obtained and, and beyond Jerry Icenhower's explanation that they are a group of Nevada investors, no investigation is made into who the shareholders of Howell and Gardner really are.

¶ Diaz obtains a copy of the Articles of Incorporation of Howell & Gardner during due diligence which state that prior shareholder authorization is required for a sale of the assets of the company. Diaz's counsel has the Articles of Incorporation translated into Spanish.

More Red Flags for Diaz

🚩 Diaz purchases the Villa with all furnishings, electronics, and motor vehicles. The truck on the property is registered in Jerry Icenhower's name.

🚩 The terms of the purchase and sale contract are not negotiated with anyone at Howell & Gardner, and the purchase agreement is not reviewed by anyone at Howell and Gardner, but is merely brought to the closing.

🚩 There are no written communications whatsoever between Diaz or his lawyer and anyone at Howell & Gardner or any lawyer for Howell & Gardner.

🚩 Although Craig Kelley signs the Letter of Instruction to the Mexican Bank, Diaz does not bother to contact Craig Kelley, the purported authorized representative of Howell & Gardner, to introduce himself or discuss the terms of the transaction prior to the close.

More Red Flags for Diaz

Although Diaz's due diligence has revealed that Peter R.J. Thompson acted as the "local Mexican counsel" in the prior transfer by Jerry Icenhower to Howell & Gardner, Diaz does not inquire of him about the details of the prior transaction between Icenhower and Howell & Gardner.

Diaz first meets Craig Kelley on June 7, 2004 in San Diego at the time the purchase and sale contract is signed. Jerry Icenhower is in attendance. Diaz merely exchanges "pleasantries" but otherwise ignores Craig Kelley.

A few days prior to the contract signing, Jerry Icenhower hands Diaz a piece of paper with handwriting showing the accounts and entities to whom the purchase consideration is to be paid. That information is inserted into the purchase agreement by Sanchez.

More Red Flags for Diaz

Jerry Icenhower directs Diaz to pay the balance of the consideration to Icenhower Investments ($191,567); Buckeye International Funding, Inc. ($675,000); and Western Financial Assets ($398,000). Howell & Gardner is to receive just $25,000. Diaz does not ask why or ask Craig Kelley for verification.

The amounts sent to Buckeye International Funding, Inc., Western Financial Assets, and Icenhower Investments are wired to bank accounts in Visalia, California, not Nevada, where Howell & Gardner and its owners are supposed to be located.

Public information on the Nevada Secretary of State web site shows that both Western Financial Assets and Buckeye International Funding have only recently been created and that the resident agent is a nominee officer and director, raising questions as to who is really in control. Public record searches would show "Icenhower Investments" does not exist as a real entity.

Icenhower warns Diaz prior to the closing that the bankruptcy trustee may file a suit against Howell & Gardner and challenge the transaction. Diaz still proceeds.

More Red Flags for Diaz

Diaz's due diligence reveals that, although it was a taxable transaction, no taxes were paid by Jerry Icenhower on the transaction for the sale of the Villa to Howell & Gardner and that the stated value of the transaction is the same as the appraised value. Diaz still doesn't ask Howell & Gardner for a copy of the underlying purchase contract to validate the actual terms of that transaction.

H&G's (and thus Diaz/Barba's) Mexican tax "problem" is handled by falsifying the purchase price on the contracts and in the deed.

Diaz agrees in the purchase agreement to pay half of the seller's capital gains and transfer taxes. Despite the contract, Diaz pays all the seller's capital gains and transfer taxes, because Howell & Gardner has no money.

Icenhower suggests to Diaz that the transaction be in cash so it cannot be traced.

Diaz agrees to pay a portion of seller's trustee fees. Before closing, he discovers Howell & Gardner is seriously delinquent, ends up paying all.

Despite All These Warnings to Diaz/Barba:

- ▶ There is no inquiry into the nature of H&G's business
- ▶ There is no inquiry into the identity of H&G's shareholders
- ▶ There is no inquiry into H&G's reputation
- ▶ There is no inquiry made into H&G's capitalization
- ▶ There is no inquiry made into H&G's solvency
- ▶ There is no request made for H&G's audited financials
- ▶ There is no inquiry into what other assets H&G might own
- ▶ There is no request to review the terms of the sale between H&G and Incenhower (purchase contract)
- ▶ There is no attempt to review the pending bankruptcy case proceedings regarding the Icenhowers
- ▶ Diaz/Barba's "due diligence" is limited to a perfunctory title search in Mexico

1 10. That Defendant MR. DIAZ owns multiple parcels property in San Diego. [Adv. Proc.
 2 04-90392, Answer to First Amended Complaint dated March 23, 2005, ¶ 8]

3 11. That Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER is a corporation organized under the laws
 4 of the state of Nevada. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 18.]

5 12. That Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER'S corporate status has been revoked by the 6 State of Nevada, and it has no agent appointed for service of process. [Entry of Default, Docket
 7 Entry No. 18.]

8 13. That a default was entered against Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER in this action
 9 on February 23, 2007. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 18.]

10 14. That a default was entered against Defendant BUCKEYE in this action on September
 11 17, 2007. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 77.]

12 15. That a default was entered against Defendant COLUMBUS in this action on

14 16. That a default was entered against Defendant CROTON in this action on September
 15 17, 2007. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 78.]

16 17. That a default was entered against Defendant LYNNWOOD in this action on 17 September 17, 2007. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 79.]

18 18. That a default was entered against Defendant NEWARK in this action on September
 19 17, 2007. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 79.]

20 19. That a default was entered against Defendant UTICA in this action on September 17,
 21 2007. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 79.]

22 20. That a default was entered against Defendant WESTERN in this action on September
 23 17, 2007. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 79.]

24 21. That, as to Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER, HOWELL & GARDNER is the 25 Debtors' alter ego. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 18.]

26 22. That, as to Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER, HOWELL & GARDNER had a 27 unity of interest and ownership with the Debtors, such that any individuality and separateness have
 28 ceased. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 18.]

1 23. That, as to Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER, HOWELL & GARDNER was an
 2 instrument and/or "straw man" for transactions involving the Villa Property, including without
 3 limitation, the transfer of the Villa property to the DIAZ DEFENDANTS. [Entry of Default, Docket
 4 Entry No. 18.]

5 24. That, as to Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER, adherence to the fiction of the 6 separate existence of HOWELL & GARDNER as an entity distinct from the Debtors would permit
 7 an abuse of the corporate privilege and would sanction fraud and promote injustice. [Entry of
 8 Default, Docket Entry No. 18.]

9 25. That, as to Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER, it has grossly inadequate capital and 10 was so inadequately capitalized that, compared with the business to be done and the risks of loss, its 11 capitalization was illusory. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No. 18.]

12 26. That, as to Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER, formal legal requirements of 13 HOWELL & GARDNER as a separate and independent corporation are not observed. [Entry of
 14 Default, Docket Entry No. 18.]

15 27. That, as to Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER, any purported shareholders of 16 HOWELL & GARDNER, and their purported equity interests in HOWELL & GARDNER are 17 illusory and a sham created by HOWELL & GARDNER and the Debtors to obscure the effective
 18 ownership and control of HOWELL & GARDNER by the Debtors and/or the complete unity of 19 interest between the Debtors and HOWELL & GARDNER. [Entry of Default, Docket Entry No.
 20 18.]

21 28. That, as to Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER, KISMET, as successor in interest to 22 the Trustee, is entitled to avoid the post-petition purported transfers by the Debtors, MR.
 23 ICENHOWER AND MRS. ICENHOWER, and the their alter ego, Defendant HOWELL &
 24 GARDNER of the Villa Real Property Trust to the DIAZ DEFENDANTS. [Entry of Default,
 25 Docket Entry No. 18.]

1 29. That the transfer by of the beneficial interest in the Villa Property by Defendant
 2 HOWELL & GARDNER to DIAZ DEFENDANTS occurred subsequent to the Debtors' petition
 3 date. [Diaz Defendants' Answer in this Adversary Proceeding ¶10.]¹

4 30. That under that certain Purchase and Assignment Agreement dated as of October 19,
 5 2006, KISMET received an assignment of all right, title and interest in or to all assets of the Debtors'
 6 bankruptcy estate, including without limitation, all rights, and/or causes of action in the bankruptcy
 7 case, whether against third parties and/or against the Debtors, whether asserted or yet to be asserted,
 8 and whether arising in bankruptcy or nonbankruptcy law, including without limitation, the above
 9 listed case, along with all other rights, privileges, and benefits of the Trustee and the Debtors'
 10 bankruptcy estate arising out of, related thereto, or in connection therewith ("Assignment"). [Order
 11 Granting Sale of Assets Outside of Ordinary Course of Business [Main Case Docket Entry No. 95.]

12 31. That on December 7, 2006, this Court entered an Order Granting Sale of Assets
 13 Outside of Ordinary Course of Business approving the Assignment. [Order Granting Sale of Assets
 14 Outside of Ordinary Course of Business [Main Case Docket Entry No. 95.]

15 32. Pursuant to this Court's Order entered December 19, 2006, Kismet was substituted in 16 as the named Plaintiff in this action, replacing Gerald H. Davis, Chapter 7 Trustee ("Trustee").
 17 [Docket Entry No. 9.]

18 33. That MR. DIAZ is a scheduled unsecured creditor of this bankruptcy estate based on 19 a loan of $100,000 made to MR. ICENHOWER on or about October 7, 2003 [See Adv. Proc. No.
 20 04-90392, Diaz Defendants' Answer to First Amended Complaint dated March 23, 2005, ¶38; Diaz

 22 Motion to Dissolve Preliminary Injunction dated June 8, 2007 ¶¶9, 10, 12, 13; Debtors' Schedules].

23 34. That a claims bar date of December 6, 2004 was set in the Debtors' Chapter 7 case
 24 and MR. DIAZ did not file a claim [See Court Docket; Claims Register; Diaz Answer in 04-90392
 25 ¶5].

26 / / /

27 ¹ The Diaz Defendants did not file an Answer in this Adversary Proceeding, but did serve an Answer
 28 on Kismet. For the Court's convenience, the Diaz Defendants' Answer is attached hereto as Exhibit
 "D".

1 35. That not until early in 2004, after the underlying Chapter 7 case was filed, did the
 2 Debtors disclose to the Chapter 11 Trustee that on or about March 4, 2002 the Debtors purported to
 3 sell, transfer, assign or otherwise convey their interest in the Villa Real Property Trust to HOWELL
 4 & GARDNER. [See Answer of Debtors, ¶ 22; see also Transcript of Debtors' Section 341(a)
 5 Meeting of Creditors (judicially noticeable fact of which KISMET hereby requests that this Court
 6 take judicial notice under Fed. R. Evid. 201(d).]

7 36. That of the consideration paid by the DIAZ DEFENDANTS for the transfer of the
 8 Villa Property, other than for $25,000, the checks and/or wire payments were sent by the DIAZ
 9 DEFENDANTS to other entities than defendant HOWELL & GARDNER. [See Adv. Proc. 04-
 10 90392, Declaration of Alex Diaz-Barba in Support of Motion to Dissolve Preliminary Injunction
 11 dated June 8, 2007 ¶12.)] The remainder was directed as follows: (i) $675,000 to Buckeye
 12 International Funding, Inc.; (ii) $398,663 to Western Financial Assets, Inc.; and (iii) $191,567 to 13 Icenhower Investments, to accounts at Visalia Community Bank, 5412 Avenida de Los Robles, 14 Visalia, CA 93291..

15 37. That, in addition to the purported agreement for the transfer of the Villa Property to
 16 HOWELL & GARDNER, the Debtors retained a right to receive the proceeds of any sale of the 17 Villa Property which is above $1.5 million, (later amended to $1.4 million, and a right to buy the
 18 Villa Property back from HOWELL & GARDNER. The transfer agreement also purported to give
 19 the Debtor MR. ICENHOWER, management and control of the Villa Property, the right to all profits
 20 and responsibility for all costs, notwithstanding the purported transfer to HOWELL & GARDNER.
 21 [Debtors' Answer ¶23.]

22 38. During proceedings and settlement negotiations conducted in the District Court
 23 Litigation in October 2002, the Debtors represented that they were in control of the Villa Property,
 24 despite the purported transfer to HOWELL & GARDNER, and actively negotiated a sale of their
 25 interests to the Lonie Trust. Specifically, the settlement brief filed by the Debtors, stated "The Villa
 26 has been continuously marketed for the sum of $2,500,000 by MR. ICENHOWER, and has been
 27 appraised at that value several years ago There has been interest around the $1,500,000 level,
 28 but MR. ICENHOWER has been unwilling to part with it a[t] this price. Rental opportunities for the

1 Villa have improved since the "9/11" tragedy and the Villa is currently operating at a "break even."
 2 In short, the ICENHOWERs are able to hold the property while they seek the right buyer . . ." The
 3 brief then goes on to offer a settlement option that includes a "transfer of the beneficial interest in the 4 [Real Property Trust] for the Villa. . ." [Debtors' Answer ¶ 28.]

5 39. That Defendant MS. BARBA's formal name is Martha B. Diaz and that she is also
 6 sometimes known as Margarita Barba de La Torre, Martha Barba Diaz, Martha M. Diaz, Martha
 7 Margarita Diaz, and Martha B. Diaz. [Answer to First Amended Complaint ¶7].

8 40. That Defendant MR. DIAZ's formal name is Porfirio Alejandro Diaz Barba and that
 9 this is frequently shortened for the sake of simplicity to Alejandro Diaz-Barba, Alex Diaz, Porfirio
 10 Alejandro Diaz, Alejandro B. Diaz, Porfirio A. Diaz, and Porfirio Diaz. [Adv. Proc. No. 04-90392,
 11 Diaz Defendants' Answer to First Amended Complaint dated March 23, 2005 ¶8.]

12 41. That Defendant MR. DIAZ and defendant MS. BARBA each admit that an actual
 13 controversy has arisen and now exists between Plaintiff, on the one hand, and Defendant MR. DIAZ
 14 and defendant MS. BARBA, on the other hand. [Adv. Proc. No. 04-90392, Diaz Defendants'
 15 Answer to First Amended Complaint dated March 23, 2005 ¶65.]

16 42. That Defendant MR. DIAZ is an initial transferee of HOWELL & GARDNER.
 17 [Answer to Complaint in this Adversary Proceeding ¶7.]

18 43. That Defendant MS. BARBA is an initial transferee of HOWELL & GARDNER.
 19 [Answer to Complaint in this Adversary Proceeding ¶7.]

20 44. That on November 24, 2003 judgment of the District Court was entered against 21 Defendants MR. ICENHOWER AND MRS. ICENHOWER in the action, Stephen P. Lonie, Diane
C. Oney and Thomas E. Lonie, Jr. Family Trust v. Jerry Lee Icenhower, et al., Civ. No. 00-CV-612,
 22 United States District Court, Southern District of California, which judgment provided that MR.
 23 ICENHOWER AND MRS. ICENHOWER either (a) pay damages in the amount of $1,356,830.32
 24 within 60 days of the filing of the Court's Order on November 24, 2003 and (b) re-register the lien
 25 on the Villa Property within 10 days of the filing of the Court's Order on November 24, 2003 or (c)
 26 shall reconvey the Villa Property, free from any encumbrance, claim, lien, or liability that has been
 27 placed on the property or occasioned by MR. ICENHOWER AND MRS. ICENHOWER's actions or
 28 placed on the property or occasioned by MR. ICENHOWER AND MRS. ICENHOWER's actions or

1 inactions to the Lonie Trust in accordance with the terms of the underlying agreement between the
 2 parties. The judgment remains pending and the District Court Proceeding remains open.

3 [Memorandum of Decision and Order Re: Damages; and Directing Entry of Judgment, Civ. No. 00-
 4 CV-612, United States District Court, Southern District of California (judicially noticeable fact, of
 5 which this Court is requested to take judicial notice under Fed. R. Evid 201(d), a true and correct
 6 copy of the Court's Memorandum of Decision and Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".)]

RESERVATIONS AS TO FACTS

9 The reservations as to the facts recited in paragraphs 1-43 above are as follows:

10 1. As for admitted facts numbers 21-28, 35, 37, and 38, the DIAZ DEFENDANTS
 11 reserve the rights to claim that KISMET is not entitled to relief as to them.

12 2. As for admitted fact number 36, KISMET reserves the right to claim that the 13 consideration stated was not actually paid as consideration for the transfer, but was for other
 14 purposes.

15 3. As for admitted fact number 37, plaintiff reserves the right to claim that other indicia
 16 of control by MR. ICENOWER over the Villa Property were present.

JUDICIALLY NOTICEABLE FACTS

19 KISMET contends that the following facts, though not admitted, are judicially noticeable and 20 accordingly requests the Court to take judicial notice of the same pursuant to Fed. R. of Evid.
 21 201(d). The DIAZ DEFENDANTS do not join in KISMET'S request:

22 1. Pursuant to this Court's comments at the Hearing on KISMET'S Motion for 23 Summary Judgment and Minute Order dated November 1, 2007,² Nevada law, as the state of 24 incorporation of Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER, shall govern the determination of whether to 25 pierce the corporate veil of HOWELL & GARDNER in this matter. This is the established law of 26 the case.

27
 28 ² The Diaz Defendants have never lodged a proposed order, as they were requested by the Court to do. Kismet requests that the Court take judicial notice of its Minute Order.

1 2. Pursuant to the Court's Order dated November 9, 2007 [Adv. Proc. No. 04-90392,
 2 Docket Entry No. 329.]:

3 The chain of title in the public records coupled with Mr. Diaz's
 4 admissions of what he actually knew--e.g., Icenhower's continuing 5 control and ostensible ownership of the Villa Property--gave Diaz the 6 duty to enquire further as a reasonably prudent person with his level of 7 business sophistication would do. Specifically, the chain of title
 8 showed that Icenhower owned the Villa Property two years earlier and 9 continued to exercise control and, indeed, ostensible ownership. This 10 would cause a reasonable person to investigate the agreement between 11 Icenhower and Howell & Gardner Investors, Inc. and the prior sales
 12 price. Further, Diaz admits he knew of Icenhower's bankruptcy which 13 would have triggered enquiry notice as to all future dealings with him.
 14 Icenhower--allegedly a stranger to Diaz (although there is evidence
 15 that Kocherga, Diaz's childhood friend, and Icenhower shared a 16 business office in Coronado) borrowed $100,000 U.S. from Diaz
 17 immediately before filing bankruptcy. Then, Diaz was aware that 18 "Icenhower" Investments--was going to receive a large portion of the 19 sales price of the Villa Property, rather than Howell & Gardner
 20 Investors, Inc., the putative owner. This combination of facts and 21 circumstances should have triggered further enquiry.

22 3. Pursuant to the Court's Order dated March 6, 2008 [Docket Entry No. 159.]

23 1. Venue objection is procedurally improper. It should have been 24 brought as a motion under FRCP 12(b) which should have been part of 25 defendant's first response to the complaint. Because it was not 26 brought as a "first response," it is a (a) untimely and (b) waived.
 27 Richards v. Lloyd's of London, 135 F. 3d 1289, 1292 (9th Cir. 1998);
 28 12 Moore's Federal Prac. – Civil, Sec. 12.21.

29 2. Prior actions of the actual parties to the agreements establishes 30 that the forum selection clause (in the fideicomiso trust document
 31 which was NOT attached as an exhibit) purporting to control the venue 32 of litigation was ignored by those parties as permissive and limited in 33 scope. Otherwise how could parties to the agreements (the Lonies and 34 the defendants) have litigated a breach of contract dispute involving 35 the property in the U.S. District Court without asserting jurisdiction in 36 Mexico was exclusive?

37 3. The laches defense fails as a matter of law. This action was 38 timely filed pursuant to Section 544(a). Further, contrary to movants'
 39 contention, this matter is a core proceeding, arising under Title 11.
 40 See 28 U.S.C. Sec. 157(b)(2)(F) [avoidance actions to recover
 41 fraudulent transfers are core matters]. Even though the Sec. 544(b)
 42 looks to state law, there is a strong policy that "core" actions be
 43 litigated in bankruptcy court.

44 4. Pursuant to this Court's Order dated December 11, 2007 [Adv. Proc. No. 04-90392,

45 Docket Entry No. 348.]:

46 In defense of the avoidability of the fraudulent conveyance claim of

1 Plaintiff, Diaz asserts the affirmative defense of good faith and
 2 reliance on counsel. However, during his deposition, Diaz declined to
 3 answer questions about the advice he was given by counsel, claiming
 4 the attorney/client privilege. Court holds that it is well-settled that
 5 placing reliance on advice of counsel in issue waives the privilege.
 6 See Chevron v. Pennzoil, 974 F.2d 1156, 1162 (9th Cir. 1992); U.S. v.
Bilzerian, 926 F.2d 1285, 1292-3 (2nd Cir. 1991). As noted by the
 7 court in In re Gibco, 185 F.R.D.296 (D. Colo., 1997), a defense of good
 8 faith to a fraudulent conveyance actions contains both objective and
 9 subjective components. While the Court can determine whether
 10 objective circumstances would have placed Diaz on inquiry notice, to 11 determine his subjective intent-- "what he and his counsel knew about 12 the circumstances surrounding the transfer and the purposes they 13 sought to serve by making the transfer" (Gibco at p. 301) -- can only
 14 be established by Diaz' testimony about what his Counsel told him.
 15 Therefore, to the extent Diaz has raised the affirmative defense of 16 "good faith," he has waived the attorney/client privilege as to evidence
 17 relevant to that defense.

18 5. Pursuant to this Court's Order dated February 13, 2007 [Adv. Proc. No. 04-90392,
 19 Docket Entry No. 216]:

20 TRANSFER AT ISSUE:

21 [Diaz] incorrectly focuses on transfers that occurred after debtor
 22 fraudulently conveyed his beneficial trust interest to H&G. However,
 23 this is a misapplication of Sec. 544(b). Sec. 544(b) enables a court to 24 avoid a transfer of the interest of the debtor in property. Necessarily,
 25 we must focus on the transfer between the debtor and the initial
 26 transferee (H&G) and whether it was fraudulent to an actual creditor
 27 of debtor. Once that transfer was completed, debtor and estate no
 28 longer had an interest in the property which was avoidable. [Both the Maxwell and Midland cases cited by [Kismet] agree with the majority
 view that property fraudulently conveyed is not property of the debtor
 or Property of the Estate.

SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION:

For purposes of determining subject matter jurisdiction (SMJ) over the
 Sec. 544(b) and Sec. 550 claims, we look to the initial transfer to determine whether we have jurisdiction, not the later transfers. There is no jurisdictional challenge to the initial transfer. As correctly observed by Kismet, there is a statutory grant of SMJ over claims to avoid and recover a fraudulent conveyance of an interest in real property and, so long as the Court has personal jurisdiction over the defendants (as we do over the Diaz defendants), we have the ability to order the person to execute a conveyance or to enter a money
 judgment for its value, subject to enforcement through contempt
 powers, EVEN THOUGH IT INDIRECTLY AFFECTS TITLE
 TO REAL PROPERTY OUTSIDE OUR TERRITORIAL
 BOUNDARIES. See Fall v. Easton, 215 U.S. 1 (1909); see also Opposition, p. 5-6. Court rejects Movant's claim that we will be required to cancel the transfer of title between the Mexican Bank and the Diaz defendants. Rather, we can order the Diaz defendants to

1 create a fideicomiso trust and order them to convey the property to that
 2 trust with the estate holding the beneficial interest.

3 AVOIDANCE ACTIONS:

4 The presumption against extraterritoriality is not implicated by this
 5 complaint. Once we re-focus our attention to the correct transfer
 6 (between debtor & H&G), the "center of gravity" is indisputably within the U.S. Both [Diaz] and Kismet agree that we apply the presumption against extraterritoriality only if the "center of gravity"
 lies outside the U.S.

7 REMAINING ISSUES OF FACT

8 The following issues of fact, and no others, remain to be litigated upon the trial:

9 1. Whether Defendant JERRY ICENOWER had equitable ownership of Defendant
 HOWELL & GARDNER.

10 2. Whether an "injustice or inequitable result" will follow unless the corporate form of HOWELL & GARDNER is disregarded, and whether all legitimate creditors are better off if the veil
 11 is pierced and HOWELL & GARDNER'S separateness from the Debtors MR. ICENOWER AND 12 MRS. ICENOWER is disregarded.

13 3. Whether KISMET is barred by laches from the relief it seeks from the DIAZ
 DEFENDANTS.

14 4. Whether KISMET is estopped from the relief it seeks from the DIAZ
 DEFENDANTS.

15 EXHIBITS

26 REMAINING ISSUES OF LAW

27 The following issues of law, and no others, remain to be litigated upon the trial:

1 1. Whether KISMET may recover the Villa Property from the DIAZ DEFENDANTS
 2 under 11 U.S.C. § 550 and the Villa Property be preserved under 11 U.S.C. § 551.

3 2. Whether the corporate veil of HOWELL & GARDNER should be pierced.

4 3. Whether the Villa Property is property of the estate as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 541,
 5 nunc pro tunc to the Debtors' petition date.

6 4. Whether KISMET is entitled to avoid the post-petition transfer by MR.

7 ICENOWER AND MRS. ICENOWER and their alter ego, HOWELL & GARDNER, of the 8 Villa Property to the DIAZ DEFENDANTS.

9 5. Whether a declaration and/or judgment should issue from the Court that:

10 (a) HOWELL & GARDNER is the alter ego of MR ICENOWER AND MRS.
 11 ICENOWER and that the Villa Property is property of the estate.

12 (b) The purported transfer of the Real Property Trust and/or Villa Property to the 13 MR. DIAZ AND MRS. BARBA is a post-petition transfer, which KISMET is entitled to avoid and 14 recover.

ADDITIONAL STIPULATIONS OF THE PARTIES

16 1. This case shall be tried along with the related adversary proceeding, No. 04-90392.

17 2. All discovery obtained by either party in this Adversary Proceeding may be used in 18 the related Adv. Proc. No. 04-90392.

19 3. The Stipulation Regarding Disclosure of Confidential Information between and 20 among MR. DIAZ, MS. BARBA, and the Chapter 7 Trustee entered November 10, 2005 [Adv. Proc.
 21 90392, Docket Entry No. 102] is adopted by KISMET, as amended to the effect that this Adversary
 22 Proceeding shall also be deemed included with respect to all references made therein to Adversary
 23 Proceeding No. 04-90392.

24 4. Any English translation of a Spanish original document shall be properly
 25 authenticated as an exact and accurate translation of the Spanish original where it is duly certified as
 26 such under a written Certification and seal by an Expert Translator in the English and Spanish
 27 languages who is registered by a judicial district of Mexico. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the 28

1 parties otherwise reserve all rights to dispute the authenticity of the underlying Spanish original
 2 document.

3 5. KISMET contends that this proceeding is governed entirely by U.S. law, and thus
 4 does not propose to introduce or raise any issues about a foreign country's law, except to the extent
 5 that a rebuttal is necessary to issues of a foreign country's law by defendants ALEX DIAZ and 6 MARTHA BARBA, in respect to which KISMET reserves all rights.

7 6. KISMET has proposed that that KISMET'S claims against the following defendants
 8 shall either be severed from this trial and adjudicated separately at a later date or these defendants
 9 will be dismissed without prejudice:

10 (a) Defendant Johnstown Enterprises LLC ("JOHNSTOWN"), a Nevada limited
 11 liability corporation, which has at times and for certain purposes used the following address: 5828
 12 W. Sweet Drive, Visalia, California 93291.

- 13 (b) Defendant Ramiro Lomeli Salcedo, a Mexican national.
- 14 (c) Defendant Raul Sanchez Navarro, a Mexican national.
- 15 (d) Defendant Eduardo Sanchez Navarro, a Mexican national.
- 16 (e) Defendant Armando Nararro Castellanos, a Mexican national.
- 17 (f) Defendant Diego Gonzalez Martinez, a Mexican national.
- 18 (g) Defendant Rodolfo Palacios Camacho, a Mexican national.
- 19 (h) Defendant Claudio Jiminez Vizcarra, a Mexican national.
- 20 (i) Defendant Fermin Medina Contreras, a Mexican national.
- 21 (j) Defendant Jorge Chavez Galindo, a Mexican national.
- 22 (k) Defendant Dolorita Alvarez Cota, a Mexican national.

23 7. KISMET advises the Court that additional discovery is still ongoing in this Adversary
 24 Proceeding, along with the related Adversary Proceeding, 04-90392. Furthermore, neither KISMET
 25 nor the DIAZ DEFENDANTS have deposed each others' Expert Witness(es). Nor has the stipulated
 26 continued deposition of ALEX DIAZ been completed by KISMET. As such, both Kismet and the 27 DIAZ DEFENDANTS reserve all rights to amend and/or supplement (i) this Pre-trial Order, (ii)

their respective Exhibit List, and (iii) their respective Witness List as may be necessary and/or appropriate.

The foregoing admissions having been made by the parties, and the parties having specified the foregoing issues of fact and law remaining to be litigated, this order shall supplement the pleadings and govern the course of the trial of this cause, unless modified to prevent manifest injustice.

This case shall not be tried by a jury.

The trial of this case shall not be bifurcated.

KISMET contends that the time estimated for trial is three to four days. The DIAZ DEFENDANTS have advised Kismet that they estimate the time for trial is five days

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION and
ORDER RE: DAMAGES; and
JUDGMENT

18 By Memorandum of Decision and Order filed September 25, 2003, the Court found in 19 plaintiffs' favor and against defendants; and in counterdefendants' favor and against 20 counterclaims on the counterclaim. The issue of damages remained pending; therefore,
21 plaintiffs were ordered to provide the Court and opposing counsel with their verified
22 calculation of any and all damages sustained in conformity with the Court's Memorandum of 23 Decision and Order. Defendants were given an opportunity to file a response, consistent with 24 the Memorandum of Decision and Order, to plaintiffs' calculation of damages. Plaintiffs filed
25 a reply memorandum. The matter of damages having been fully briefed and finding this matter
26 suitable for determination on the papers submitted and without oral argument pursuant to Civil 27 Local Rule 7.1(d)(1), the Court enters the following Order.

28 ...

102 EXHIBIT "D"

Discussion

2 | 1. Money Damages

3 Plaintiffs submitted their verified statement of damages on October 14, 2003 to which
4 defendants filed a statement of non-opposition to plaintiffs' damages calculations.¹

In its Memorandum of Decision and Order, the Court found the English Note to be the operative Note. The Note required defendants to pay plaintiffs the principal sum of $550,000.00 plus advances of $192,199.23. Both principal and advances were to bear interest at a rate of 10% per annum. The effective date of the Note was April 1, 1995. Calculated through October 31, 2003, the damages due and owing to plaintiffs are as follows:

10	Principal	$ 550,000.00
11	Interest on Principal	472,083.33
12	Advances	192,199.23
13	Interest on Advances	142,547.76
14	Total Due	$1,356,830.32

2. Prevailing Party

16 The Court finds and concludes that plaintiffs are the prevailing parties in this action.
17 Plaintiffs may seek an award of costs under Local Civil Rule 54.1.

18 | 3. Re-registration of Lien

19 As noted above, defendants do not challenge the mathematical calculation of damages
20 presented by plaintiffs. But defendants assert that plaintiffs are not entitled to "other relief" in 21 the form of reconveyance of the title to the Villa property to plaintiffs and/or the re-registration
22 of the prior lien on the Villa. Plaintiffs contend that re-registration of the lien is appropriate
23 relief and such relief was generally requested in their Complaint. The Court concurs.

24 The English Note contained terms requiring a first priority lien to be registered in
25 Mexico. At trial, Icenhower testified that the lien had been registered but was released

27 Defendants reserve their contentions as to "whether or not such interest was due under the 28 terms of the agreements in issue, and [] all of their claims and contentions with respect to the merits of the action pending a determination of whether or not an appeal will be filed." Defendants' Opposition at 2.

1 pursuant to the April 1, 1996 Agreement with Lonic. Lonic agreed to release the lien on the
2 Villa Property for the purpose of effectuating a proposed sale of property to the World
3 Interactive Network ("WIN"). The February 9, 1996 proposal from Icenhower to Lonic also
4 indicated that the lien would be reinstated if the sale fell through. The sale was not
5 consummated. Based on the evidence presented at trial, the Court found that Lonic did not
6 cancel the requirement to re-register the Note obligation based on an alleged oral agreement
7 with Icenhower. The Court specifically found that the failure to re-register the lien constituted
8 a breach of the Agreement on Note contract requiring the lien to be re-registered if the sale was
9 not completed. The Court further found that between Lonic and Icenhower, the lien was
10 effective and constituted a security interest in Icenhower's rights, title or interest in the Villa
11 and Icenhower breached the agreement to re-register the lien when the WIN transaction failed
12 to go forward. The Court now finds that plaintiffs sought all legally available relief in their
13 Complaint, including the re-registration of the lien. Requiring defendants to re-register the lien
14 will function to secure the damages owed to plaintiffs and is an available and appropriate
15 remedy for plaintiffs.

16 The lien on the Villa property was intended to secure the amount due and owing to 17 plaintiffs. Because the Court has found and concluded that defendants were required under the 18 agreement to re-register the lien in the event the property was not sold, defendants will be
19 required to re-register the first priority lien in Mexico in accordance with the Agreement
20 on Note and the Court's Memorandum of Decision and Order until full payment of the 21 damages the Court has awarded plaintiffs is paid in full. Upon defendants' full payment of 22 damages to plaintiffs, the lien shall be released.

23 Conclusion

24 Based on the foregoing, IT IS ORDERED awarding plaintiffs damages in the amount
25 of $550,000.00 in principal; 10% per annum interest on the principal from April 1, 1995;

26 ...

27 ...

28 ...

1 $192,199.23 in advances; 10% per annum interest on the advances from April 1, 1995.²

2 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendants shall re-register the lien on the Villa
3 property within ten (10) days of the filing of this Order. Defendants shall submit evidence of
4 the re-registration of the lien to plaintiffs within ten (10) days of the registration of the lien.
5 Upon full payment of the damages in this matter, plaintiffs shall cause the lien to be released.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that full payment of the damages awarded shall be
7 made within 60 days of the filing of this Order.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in the event defendants fail to pay to plaintiffs the
9 full damages award within the time provided, defendants shall reconvey the Villa property,
10 free of any encumbrance, claim, lien or liability that has been placed upon the property or
11 occasioned by defendants' actions or inactions, to plaintiffs in accordance with the terms of the 12 parties' underlying agreement.

13 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED directing entry of judgment in plaintiffs' favor and
14 against defendants; and in counterdefendants' favor and against counterclaimants on the 15 counterclaim, and awarding damages to plaintiffs in accordance with this Order.

16 IT IS SO ORDERED.

ALEX DIAZ' AND MARTHA DIAZ'
ANSWER TO COMPLAINT

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

JUDGE: Hon. Louise DeCarl Adler

PARTIES

2 1. Answering paragraph 1, Mr. Davis is no longer the Trustee of this Estate and has
 3 no standing herein. The affairs of the Debtor have been resolved, and the Bankruptcy Court no
 4 longer has jurisdiction over this matter or the allegations of the matters set forth herein.

5 2. Answering paragraphs 2 through 4, the Diaz Family has no information or belief
 6 on these matters, and denies each of them.

7 3. Answering paragraph 5, the Diaz Family alleges that Howell & Gardner is a
 8 Nevada Corporation. Except as admitted herein, Defendants deny, generally and specifically, the 9 remaining allegations of the above paragraph.

10 4. Answering paragraphs 6 and 7, Martha Diaz and her son Alex Diaz (the "Diaz
 11 Family") are citizens of Mexico and occasionally reside in San Diego. Except as admitted herein,
 12 the Diaz Family denies the remaining allegations of paragraphs 6 and 7.

13 5. Answering paragraphs 8 through 11, Defendants have no information or belief
 14 sufficient to answer these paragraphs, and on that basis, deny them.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16 6. Answering paragraphs 12 through 14, the Diaz Family denies that the Court has 17 jurisdiction over this matter, that venue is proper or improper, or that this matter is a core
 18 proceeding. This matter is related to other complaints filed by Kismet Acquisition LLC and 19 Plaintiff has made a demand for jury trial in connection with that and in connection with this 20 matter. Mr. Davis is no longer the Trustee of this Estate and has no standing herein. The affairs
 21 of the Debtor have been resolved, and the Bankruptcy Court no longer has jurisdiction over this 22 matter or the allegations of the matters set forth herein.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

24 7. Answering paragraphs 15 and 17, the Diaz Family alleges that the real estate
 25 records in Mexico reflect that the Lonie Trust was the holder of a beneficial interest in a
 26 fideicomiso trust which owned the Villa Property and the El Zafiro Property pursuant to Mexican 27 law and the Mexican Constitution, and the Lonie Trust is bound by the provisions of the 28 fideicomiso trust and its records on the transfers therein. These records reflect that the property

1 was subsequently transferred to Howell & Gardner and that Howell & Gardner transferred the
 2 Villa Property to the Diaz Family in accordance with Mexican law, the Mexican Constitution and
 3 the terms and provisions of the fideicomiso trust, and the Lonie Trust and its successors are 4 barred by Mexican law from contesting these transactions or contesting them in the U.S. Courts.

5 8. Answering paragraphs 16 through 35, the Diaz Family alleges that the Villa
 6 Property constitutes property located in Mexico, that title to the property was held in a 7 fideicomiso trust, that pursuant to the terms of the fideicomiso trust, the beneficial interest was 8 transferred by the Debtor to Howell & Gardner, that the Lonie Trust and all successors in interest
 9 had constructive notice of these transfers which were recorded in Mexico. Except as admitted
 10 herein, the Diaz Family denies, generally and specifically, the remaining allegations of those 11 paragraphs.

12 9. Answering paragraphs 36, the Diaz Family alleges that transfers of property for the 13 beneficial interest of the property are recorded in Mexico and are matters of public record and 14 that the Lonie Trust and its successors in interest had constructive notice of these matters. Except 15 as admitted herein, the Diaz Family denies the remaining provisions of paragraph 36.

16 10. Answering paragraph 37, the Diaz Family alleges that Howell & Gardner held a 17 beneficial interest in the Villa Property as a result of transfers and records recorded pursuant to 18 the terms and provisions of the fideicomiso trust and Mexican law and that Howell & Gardner
 19 was the sole holder of the beneficial interest to the Villa Property until the property was 20 transferred to the Diaz Family. The Diaz Family further alleges that Howell & Gardner executed
 21 documents authorizing Banco Nacionale de Mexico as Trustee to transfer the property to the Diaz
 22 Family, that the Diaz Family paid and transferred monies at the request of Howell & Gardner, and 23 that the Diaz Family paid reasonably equivalent value and acted in good faith and acquired all
 24 right, title and interest and control over the Villa Property as of June, 2004. Except as admitted
 25 herein, the Diaz Family denies, generally and specifically, the remaining allegations of this 26 paragraph.

27 11. Answering paragraphs 38 through 43, the Diaz Family denies, generally and 28 specifically, each and every allegation contained therein.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

12. The Diaz Family incorporates herein paragraphs 1 through 11 above as though fully set forth herein.

13. Answering paragraphs 45 through 50, while the Diaz Family is not a party to this claim, the Diaz Family denies, generally and specifically, the allegations contained therein.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

14. The Diaz Family incorporates herein paragraphs 1 through 13 above as though fully set forth herein.

15. Answering paragraphs 52 through 54, the Diaz Family denies, generally and specifically, each and every allegation contained therein. As of the date of the filing, title to the Villa Property was held in Howell & Gardner, pursuant to the Mexican laws, the Mexican Constitution and the terms and conditions of the fideicomiso trust. The Lonie Trust was bound by this as is their successor in interest.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

16. The Diaz Family incorporates herein paragraphs 1 through 15 above as though fully set forth herein.

17. Answering paragraphs 56 through 61, the Diaz Family denies, generally and specifically, each and every allegation therein and alleges that:

(a) Following the transfer in approximately March, 2002, Howell & Gardner was the holder of the beneficial interest in the Villa Property under the terms of the fideicomiso trust and under Mexican law.

(b) Following the transfer in March 2002, Howell & Gardner was shown on all real estate records in Mexico as the holder of the beneficial interest in the fideicomiso trust, with Debtor holding no interest.

(c) The Diaz Family acquired title from the Banco Nacionale de Mexico pursuant to the terms and provisions of the fideicomiso trust. Mexican law and the Mexican Constitution.

(d) The Diaz Family acquired the Villa Property for value and in good faith

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

18. The Diaz Family alleges that claims in this Complaint are subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Mexican courts.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

19. The Diaz Family alleges that these issues are decided and controlled by Mexican law and the Mexican Constitution. Under Mexican law, Kismet is barred from any relief against the Diaz Family in this action.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

20. The terms and provisions of the fideicomiso trust which are binding upon the Lonie Trust and its successor in interest, Kismet Acquisition LLC, provide that the Lonie Trust and therefore, Kismet, cannot dispute title to property transferred pursuant to the terms and provisions of the fideicomiso trust.

21. The fideicomiso trust through which the Lonie Trust held beneficial title to the Villa Property contains a covenant that forbids this legal action by Kismet as assignee of the Lonie Trust.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

22. These transactions involve transactions pursuant to the terms and provisions of the fideicomiso trust, the Mexican Constitution and Mexican law, and are governed by these.

23. The Diaz Family reviewed title to the Villa Property in Mexico and relied upon the records of the property in Mexico, which provided that the property was held in a fideicomiso trust with Howell & Gardner as beneficiary. The Diaz Family further alleges that the Lonie Trust and its successor in interest had constructive notice of these matters. The Diaz Family relied upon Mexican records to purchase its interest from Banco Nacionale de Mexico for value and in good faith and pursuant to the provisions of Mexican law.

24. Accordingly, Kismet, as assignee of the Lonie Trust, is equitably estopped from bringing this action.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

25. The Diaz Family reviewed title to the Villa Property in Mexico, relied upon the records of the property in Mexico, provided that the property was held in a fideicomiso trust with Howell & Gardner as beneficiary. The Diaz Family further alleges that the Lonie Trust and its successor in interest had constructive notice of these matters. The Diaz Family relied upon Mexican records to purchase its interest from Banco Nacionale de Mexico for value and in good faith and pursuant to the provisions of Mexican law.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

26. Kismet Acquisition is limited to recovery of the funds paid by the Diaz Family and is not entitled to transfer any title interest located in Mexico.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

27. The relief sought by Kismet Acquisition is barred by law.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

28. Kismet is barred and precluded from recovery in this action by virtue of the doctrine of waiver.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

29. Kismet is barred and precluded from recovery in this action by virtue of the doctrine of unclean hands.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

30. Kismet is barred and precluded from recovery in this action by virtue of the doctrine of laches.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

31. The Complaint, and each purported cause of action therein directed against the Diaz Family, fails to allege facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

32. The Complaint, and each alleged cause of action therein, fails to set forth facts sufficient to entitle Kismet to an award of attorneys' fees against the Diaz Family.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

1 33. Upon information and belief, the Diaz Family alleges that the Complaint filed
2 against the Diaz Family was brought without reasonable care and without a good faith belief that
3 there was a justifiable controversy under the facts and the law which warranted the filing of each
4 cause of action in the Complaint alleged against the Diaz Family, and that Kismet is therefore
5 responsible for all the Diaz Family's necessary and reasonable defense costs, including attorneys'
6 fees.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

8 34. Upon information and belief, the Diaz Family alleges that the Complaint filed
9 against the Diaz Family was brought for malicious purposes and in order to injure the Diaz
10 Family and without a good faith belief that there was a justifiable controversy under the facts and 11 the law which warranted the filing of each cause of action in the Complaint alleged against the 12 Diaz Family, and that Kismet is therefore responsible for all the Diaz Family's necessary and 13 reasonable defense costs, including attorneys' fees, and punitive damages.

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

35. The Complaint and each cause of action is barred by public policy considerations and by the principles of comity.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

36. Kismet has failed to join an indispensable party to this action

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

20 37. That as to the Complaint, the Diaz Family presently has insufficient information or 21 knowledge on which to form a belief as to whether it may have additional, as yet unstated,
22 affirmative defenses available. The Diaz Family reserves the right to assert additional defenses in 23 the event discovery indicates they would be appropriate.

WHEREFORE, the Diaz Family requests that:

Signed by Judge Louise DeCarl Adler April 18, 2008

1 The Parties

2 1. The plaintiff is Kismet Acquisition, LLC ("KISMET"). KISMET is a limited liability
 3 corporation organized under the laws of Delaware with its principal place of business in San Diego,
 4 California.

5 2. Defendant Jerry L. Icenhower ("MR. ICENHOWER") is an individual with his
 6 principal residence in the County of San Diego, in the State of California, and is one of the debtors
 7 in the underlying Chapter 7 case.

8 3. Defendant Donna L. Icenhower ("MRS. ICENHOWER") is an individual with her
 9 principal residence in the County of San Diego, in the State of California, and is one of the debtors
 10 in the underlying Chapter 7 case.

11 4. Defendant Howell & Gardner Investors, Inc. ("HOWELL & GARDNER") is a 12 corporation organized under the laws of the state of Nevada.

13 5. Defendant Martha Margarita Barba de la Torre ("MS. BARBA") is an individual and 14 Mexican citizen with a residence at the following address: 1781 Mother Grundy Truck Trail, Jamul,
 15 California, 91935.

16 6. Defendant Alejandro Diaz-Barba ("MR. DIAZ") is an individual and Mexican citizen
 17 with a residence at the following address: 222 Dovary Road, Chula Vista, California, 91910.

18 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

19 1. KISMET asserts that the United States District Court for the Southern District of 20 California has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This Court
 21 has referred jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334(b) and 22 157(b)(2)(A), (E), (J), and (O) and 11 U.S.C. § 544, and under General Order 312-D of the United 23 States District Court for the Southern District of California.

24 2. Defendants MR. DIAZ AND MS. BARBA (collectively, "DIAZ DEFENDANTS")
 25 reserve all rights to contest that this Court has jurisdiction over any action affecting title to real 26 property in Mexico.

27 3. KISMET asserts that venue is proper in the Southern District of California pursuant 28 to 28 U.S.C. § 1409(a) because the underlying bankruptcy case is pending in this district.

4. KISMET informs the Court that, Defendants have advised us that they contend that venue in the Southern District of California is improper.

5. KISMET asserts that this adversary proceeding for recovery of an avoided transfer is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §§157(b)(1) and (2)(B), (E), (F), (H) and (O).

6. Defendants have advised KISMET of no particular position on whether this adversary proceeding is "core," but otherwise appear to intend to contest this issue.

ADMITTED FACTS

The following facts are admitted and require no proof:

1. That KISMET is a limited liability corporation organized under the laws of Delaware with its principal place of business in San Diego, California.

2. That MR. ICENHOWER is an individual with his principal residence in the County of San Diego, in the State of California, and is one of the debtors in the underlying Chapter 7 case.

[Debtors' Answer to Complaint in Adv. Proc. 06-90369; ¶2 Bankruptcy Petition.]

of San Diego, in the State of California, and is one of the debtors in the underlying Chapter 7 case.
[Debtors' Answer to Complaint; ¶3 Bankruptcy Petition.]

4. That MS. BARBA is an individual with a place of residence in San Diego County, California [Diaz Answer to First Amended Complaint dated April 16, 2007 ¶5 (hereinafter "Diaz Answer")], and who has testified that her "current residence" and the residence she spends "most of her time" is the following address: 1781 Mother Grundy Truck Trail, Jamul, California, 91935. [Deposition of Martha Barba dated Sept. 5, 2007 at 10-12].

5. That MR. DIAZ is an individual who has lived in San Diego County, California, since 1992, [Diaz Deposition Sept. 11, 2007 at 21], who has testified that his "current place of residence" and where he "live[s]" is at the following address: 222 Dovary Road, Chula Vista, California, 91910. Prior to 2003, his primary place of residence was at the following address: 4651 Villas Drive and/or Place, Bonita, California, 91902. [Deposition of Alex Diaz dated Sept. 11, 2007 at 28, 98-100].

1 6. That MR. DIAZ is an experienced businessman who has, for the past 15 years, made
 2 a number of real estate investments, and is on the board of directors of one or more companies.

3 7. That KISMET is assignee and successor in interest to the claims against the Debtors
 4 of Stephen E. Lonie, Diane C. Oney and Thomas E. Lonie, as trustees ("Trustees") of the D. Donald
 5 Lonie, Jr., Family Trust ("Lonie Trust"), original creditors of the Debtors in the underlying Chapter
 6 7 case. [Notice Of Transfer Of Claim Other Than For Security, Main Case Docket Entry No. 69;
 7 Diaz Answer ¶34.]

8 8. That MS. BARBA owns XLNC1, a California Corporation, with a primary place of 9 business at 1690 Frontage Road, Chula Vista, CA 91911. That MS. BARBA is an officer and 10 director of other companies having a principal place of business in San Diego County, California,
 11 including International Institute of Photographic Arts, Inc., a California Corporation with a principal
 12 place of business at 1690 Frontage Road, Chula Vista, CA 91911; Califormula, Inc., a California
 13 corporation, with a principal place of business at 1690 Frontage Road, Chula Vista, CA 91911, and 14 XLNC1. That MS. BARBA is the agent for service of process for these same companies at 1690
 15 Frontage Road, Chula Vista, CA 91911. [Deposition of Martha Diaz, Sept. 5, 2007 10; California
 16 Secretary of State web site.] That MS. BARBA is a member of Pacific Wings, LLC, a California
 17 limited liability company with a principal place of business at 4025 Kearny Villa Rd San Diego, CA
 18 92123. [Id.]

19 9. That MR. DIAZ is an officer and director of Califormula, Inc., a California
 20 corporation, with a principal place of business at 1690 Frontage Road, Chula Vista, CA 91911, 21 Radio Computing Latinoamerica Inc., a California Corporation (suspended) with a principal place of 22 business at 1231 Third Ave., Ste. F, Chula Vista, CA 91911 and XLNC1, a California Corporation,
 23 with a principal place of business at 1690 Frontage Road, Chula Vista, CA 91911. That MR. DIAZ
 24 is a member of Pacific Wings, LLC, a California limited liability company with a principal place of 25 business at 4025 Kearny Villa Rd San Diego, CA 92123. That MR. DIAZ is a member of Rain
 26 Forest Ventures, LLC a California limited liability company with a principal place of business at 27 4651 Villas Place, Bonita, CA 91902. [Id.; California Secretary of State web site.] That MR. DIAZ

28

1 is an officer of and agent for service of process for Expo Radio, Inc., a California Corporation
 2 (suspended), with a primary place of business at 1690 Frontage Road, Chula Vista, CA 91911. [Id.]

3 10. That Defendant MR. DIAZ owns multiple parcels of real property in San Diego
 4 County, California. [Deposition of Alex Diaz, Sept. 11, 2007; Answer to First Amended Complaint
 5 dated March 23, 2005, ¶ 8]

6 11. That Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER is a corporation organized under the laws
 7 of the state of Nevada. [Entry of Default.]

8 12. That Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER'S corporate status has been revoked by the 9 State of Nevada, and it has no agent appointed for service of process. [Entry of Default.]

10 13. That a default was entered against Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER in this action.
 11 [Entry of Default.]

12 14. That the Plaintiff, as successor in interest to the Trustee, is entitled to avoid the pre-
 13 petition purported transfers by the Debtors, MR. ICENOWER AND MRS. ICENOWER, of the 14 Villa Real Property Trust to Defendant Howell & Gardner. [Entry of Default.]

15 15. That under that certain Purchase and Assignment Agreement dated as of October 19,
 16 2006, Plaintiff received an assignment of all right, title and interest in or to all assets of the Debtors'
 17 bankruptcy estate, including without limitation, all rights, and/or causes of action in the bankruptcy
 18 case, whether against third parties and/or against the Debtors, whether asserted or yet to be asserted,
 19 and whether arising in bankruptcy or nonbankruptcy law, including without limitation, the above
 20 listed case, along with all other rights, privileges, and benefits of the Trustee and the Debtors'
 21 bankruptcy estate arising out of, related thereto, or in connection therewith ("Assignment"). [Order
 22 Granting Sale of Assets Outside of Ordinary Course of Business [Main Case Docket Entry No. 95.]

23 16. That on December 7, 2006, this Court entered an Order Granting Sale of Assets
 24 Outside of Ordinary Course of Business approving the Assignment. [Order Granting Sale of Assets
 25 Outside of Ordinary Course of Business [Main Case Docket Entry No. 95.]

26 17. Pursuant to this Court's Order entered December 19, 2006, Kismet was substituted in
 27 as the named Plaintiff in this action, replacing Gerald H. Davis, Chapter 7 Trustee ("Trustee").
 28 [Docket Entry No. 195.]

1 18. That MR. DIAZ is a scheduled unsecured creditor of this bankruptcy estate based on
 2 a loan of $100,000 made to MR. ICENHOWER on or about October 7, 2003 [See Answer to First
 3 Amended Complaint dated March 23, 2005, ¶38; Diaz Answer ¶ 5; Declaration of Alex Diaz-Barba
 4 in Support of Motion to Dissolve Preliminary Injunction dated June 8, 2007 ¶¶9, 10, 12, 13;
 5 Debtors' Schedules].

6 19. That a claims bar date of December 6, 2004 was set in the Debtors' Chapter 7 case
 7 and MR. DIAZ did not file a claim [See Court Docket; Claims Register; Diaz Answer ¶5].

8 20. That not until early in 2004, after the underlying Chapter 7 case was filed, did the
 9 Debtors disclose to the Chapter 11 Trustee that on or about March 4, 2002 the Debtors purported to
 10 sell, transfer, assign or otherwise convey their interest in the Villa Real Property Trust to Howell &
 11 Gardner. [See Answer of Debtors in Adv. Proc. 06-90369 ¶ 22; Transcript of Debtors' Section
 12 341(a) Meeting of Creditors (judicially noticeable fact of which KISMET hereby requests that this 13 Court take judicial notice under Fed. R. Evid. 201(d).]

14 21. That the consideration stated for the transfer from Howell & Gardner to the DIAZ
 15 DEFENDANTS, according to the deed document, recites a value of MX $7,508,800. This
 16 translates, at an exchange rate of about 11.4 to 1, to a price of approximately $657,168 U.S. Dollars
 17 as of August 5, 2004. [Judicially noticeable facts, of which Plaintiff requests that the Court take
 18 judicial notice under Fed. R. Evid. 201(d); see, e.g., Exhibit "M" to the First Amended Complaint
 19 ("Official Publication" self-authenticating under Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 44(a)(2);
 20 <http://www.oanda.com/convert/classic> (online currency converter function).]

21 22. That of the consideration paid by the DIAZ DEFENDANTS for the transfer of the
 22 Villa Property, other than for $25,000, the checks and/or wire payments were sent by the DIAZ
 23 DEFENDANTS to other entities than HOWELL & GARDNER. [See Declaration of Alex Diaz-
 24 Barba in Support of Motion to Dissolve Preliminary Injunction dated June 8, 2007 ¶12.]

25 23. That Defendant MS. BARBA'S formal name is Martha B. Diaz and that she is also
 26 sometimes known as Margarita Barba de La Torre, Martha Barba Diaz, Martha M. Diaz, Martha
 27 Margarita Diaz, and Martha B. Diaz. [Answer to First Amended Complaint ¶7];

28

1 24. That Defendant MR. DIAZ'S formal name is Porfirio Alejandro Diaz Barba and that
 2 this is frequently shortened for the sake of simplicity to Alejandro Diaz-Barba, Alex Diaz, Porfirio
 3 Alejandro Diaz, Alejandro B. Diaz, Porfirio A. Diaz, and Porfirio Diaz. [Answer to First Amended
 4 Complaint ¶8.]

5 25. That the DIAZ DEFENDANTS each admit that an actual controversy has arisen and 6 now exists between Plaintiff, on the one hand, and Defendant MR. DIAZ and defendant MS.
 7 BARBA, on the other hand. [Answer to First Amended Complaint ¶65.]

8 26. That, in addition to the purported agreement for the transfer of the Villa Property to
 9 HOWELL & GARDNER, the Debtors retained a right to receive the proceeds of any sale of the
 10 Villa Property which is above $1.5 million, (later amended to $1.4 million, and a right to buy the
 11 Villa Property back from HOWELL & GARDNER. The transfer agreement also purported to give
 12 the Debtor MR. ICENHOWER, management and control of the Villa Property, the right to all profits
 13 and responsibility for all costs, notwithstanding the purported transfer to HOWELL & GARDNER.
 14 [Debtors' Answer in Adv. Proc. 06-90369 ¶23.]

15 27. During proceedings and settlement negotiations conducted in the District Court
 16 Litigation in October 2002, the Debtors represented that they were in control of the Villa Property,
 17 despite the purported transfer to HOWELL & GARDNER, and actively negotiated a sale of their
 18 interests to the Lonic Trust. Specifically, the settlement brief filed by the Debtors, stated "The Villa
 19 has been continuously marketed for the sum of $2,500,000 by MR. ICENHOWER, and has been
 20 appraised at that value several years ago There has been interest around the $1,500,000 level,
 21 but MR. ICENHOWER has been unwilling to part with it at this price. Rental opportunities for the
 22 Villa have improved since the "9/11" tragedy and the Villa is currently operating at a "break even."
 23 In short, the ICENHOWER are able to hold the property while they seek the right buyer . . ." The 24 brief then goes on to offer a settlement option that includes a "transfer of the beneficial interest in the 25 [Real Property Trust] for the Villa. . ." [Debtors' Answer in Adv. Proc. 06-90369 ¶ 28.]

26 28. That on November 24, 2003 judgment of the District Court was entered against 27 Defendants MR. ICENHOWER AND MRS. ICENHOWER in the action, Stephen P. Lonte, Diane
 28 C. Oney and Thomas E. Lonte, Jr. Family Trust v. Jerry Lee Icenhower, et al., Civ. No. 00-CV-612,

1 United States District Court, Southern District of California, which judgment provided that MR.
 2 ICENHOWER AND MRS. ICENHOWER either (a) pay damages in the amount of $1,356,830.32
 3 within 60 days of the filing of the Court's Order on November 24, 2003 and (b) re-register the lien
 4 on the Villa Property within 10 days of the filing of the Court's Order on November 24, 2003 or (c)
 5 shall reconvey the Villa Property, free from any encumbrance, claim, lien, or liability that has been
 6 placed on the property or occasioned by MR. ICENHOWER AND MRS. ICENHOWER's actions or
 7 inactions to the Lonie Trust in accordance with the terms of the underlying agreement between the
 8 parties. The judgment remains pending and the District Court Proceeding remains open.

9 [Memorandum of Decision and Order Re: Damages; and Directing Entry of Judgment, Civ. No. 00-
 10 CV-612, United States District Court, Southern District of California (judicially noticeable fact, of 11 which this Court is requested to take judicial notice under Fed. R. Evid 201(d), a true and correct
 12 copy of the Court's Memorandum of Decision and Order is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".)]

RESERVATIONS AS TO FACTS

14 The reservations as to the facts recited in paragraphs 1-27 above are as follows:

15 1. As for admitted fact number 14, DIAZ DEFENDANTS reserve the right to claim that
 16 KISMET is not entitled to relief as to them.

17 2. As for admitted fact number 20, DIAZ DEFENDANTS reserve the right to claim that
 18 KISMET is not entitled to relief as to them.

19 3. As for admitted fact number 25, KISMET reserves the right to claim that other 20 indicia of control were present.

21 4. As for admitted fact number 26, DIAZ DEFENDANTS reserve the right to claim that
 22 KISMET is not entitled to relief as to them.

23 5. As for admitted fact number 27, DIAZ DEFENDANTS reserve the right to claim that
 24 KISMET is not entitled to relief as to them.

25 6. As for admitted fact number 21, KISMET reserves the right to claim that the
 26 consideration stated was not actually paid as consideration for the transfer, but was for other
 27 purposes.

7. As for admitted fact number 22, KISMET reserves the right to claim that such amount was not actually paid as consideration for the transfer of the Villa Property, but was for other purposes.

JUDICIALLY NOTICEABLE FACTS

KISMET contends that the following facts, though not admitted, are judicially noticeable and accordingly requests the Court to take judicial notice of the same pursuant to Fed. R. of Evid. 201(d). The DIAZ DEFENDANTS do not join in KISMET'S request;

1. Pursuant to the Court's Order dated November 9, 2007 [Docket Entry No. 329.]:

The chain of title in the public records coupled with Mr. Diaz's admissions of what he actually knew--e.g., Icenhower's continuing control and ostensible ownership of the Villa Property--gave Diaz the duty to enquire further as a reasonably prudent person with his level of business sophistication would do. Specifically, the chain of title showed that Icenhower owned the Villa Property two years earlier and continued to exercise control and, indeed, ostensible ownership. This would cause a reasonable person to investigate the agreement between Icenhower and Howell & Gardner Investors, Inc. and the prior sales price. Further, Diaz admits he knew of Icenhower's bankruptcy which would have triggered enquiry notice as to all future dealings with him. Icenhower--allegedly a stranger to Diaz (although there is evidence that Kocherga, Diaz's childhood friend, and Icenhower shared a business office in Coronado) borrowed $100,000 U.S. from Diaz immediately before filing bankruptcy. Then, Diaz was aware that "Icenhower" Investments--was going to receive a large portion of the sales price of the Villa Property, rather than Howell & Gardner Investors, Inc., the putative owner. This combination of facts and circumstances should have triggered further enquiry.

2. Pursuant to the Court's Order dated March 6, 2008 [Docket Entry No. 432.]

1. Venue objection is procedurally improper. It should have been brought as a motion under FRCP 12(b) which should have been part of defendant's first response to the complaint. Because it was not brought as a "first response," it is a (a) untimely and (b) waived. Richards v. Lloyd's of London, 135 F. 3d 1289, 1292 (9th Cir. 1998); 12 Moore's Federal Prac. - Civil, Sec. 12.21.

2. Prior actions of the actual parties to the agreements establishes that the forum selection clause (in the fideicomiso trust document which was NOT attached as an exhibit) purporting to control the venue of litigation was ignored by those parties as permissive and limited in scope. Otherwise how could parties to the agreements (the Lonies and the defendants) have litigated a breach of contract disputed involving the property in the U.S. District Court without asserting jurisdiction in Mexico was exclusive?

1 3. The laches defense fails as a matter of law. This action was
 2 timely filed pursuant to Section 544(a). Further, contrary to movants'
 3 contention, this matter is a core proceeding, arising under Title 11.
 4 See 28 U.S.C. Sec. 157(b)(2)(F) [avoidance actions to recover
 5 fraudulent transfers are core matters]. Even though the Sec. 544(b)
 6 looks to state law, there is a strong policy that "core" actions be
 7 litigated in bankruptcy court.

8 3. Pursuant to this Court's Order dated December 11, 2007 [Docket Entry No. 348.]:

9 In defense of the avoidability of the fraudulent conveyance claim of
 10 Plaintiff, Diaz asserts the affirmative defense of good faith and 11 reliance on counsel. However, during his deposition, Diaz declined to 12 answer questions about the advice he was given by counsel, claiming 13 the attorney/client privilege. Court holds that it is well-settled that
 14 placing reliance on advice of counsel in issue waives the privilege.
 15 See Chevron v. Pennzoil, 974 F.2d 1156, 1162 (9th Cir. 1992); US. v.
 16 Bilzerian, 926 F.2d 1285, 1292-3 (2nd Cir. 1991). As noted by the
 17 court in In re Gibco, 185 F.R.D.296 (D. Colo., 1997), a defense of good
 18 faith to a fraudulent conveyance actions contains both objective and
 19 subjective components. While the Court can determine whether
 20 objective circumstances would have placed Diaz on inquiry notice, to 21 determine his subjective intent--"what he and his counsel knew about
 22 the circumstances surrounding the transfer and the purposes they
 23 sought to serve by making the transfer" (Gibco at p. 301) -- can only
 24 be established by Diaz' testimony about what his Counsel told him.
 25 Therefore, to the extent Diaz has raised the affirmative defense of
 26 "good faith," he has waived the attorney/client privilege as to evidence
 27 relevant to that defense.

28 4. Pursuant to this Court's Order dated February 13, 2007 [Docket Entry No. 216]:

TRANSFER AT ISSUE:

1 [Diaz] incorrectly focuses on transfers that occurred after debtor
 2 fraudulently conveyed his beneficial trust interest to H&G. However,
 3 this is a misapplication of Sec. 544(b). Sec. 544(b) enables a court to
 4 avoid a transfer of the interest of the debtor in property. Necessarily,
 5 we must focus on the transfer between the debtor and the initial
 6 transferee (H&G) and whether it was fraudulent to an actual creditor
 7 of debtor. Once that transfer was completed, debtor and estate no
 8 longer had an interest in the property which was avoidable. [Both the
 9 Maxwell and Midland cases cited by [Kismet] agree with the majority
 10 view that property fraudulently conveyed is not property of the debtor
 11 or Property of the Estate.

SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION:

1 For purposes of determining subject matter jurisdiction (SMJ) over the
 2 Sec. 544(b) and Sec. 550 claims, we look to the initial transfer to
 3 determine whether we have jurisdiction, not the later transfers. There
 4 is no jurisdictional challenge to the initial transfer. As correctly
 5 observed by Kismet, there is a statutory grant of SMJ over claims to
 6 avoid and recover a fraudulent conveyance of an interest in real
 7 property and, so long as the Court has personal jurisdiction over the

1 defendants (as we do over the Diaz defendants), we have the ability to
 2 order the person to execute a conveyance or to enter a money
 3 judgment for its value, subject to enforcement through contempt
 4 powers, EVEN THOUGH IT INDIRECTLY AFFECTS TITLE
TO REAL PROPERTY OUTSIDE OUR TERRITORIAL
BOUNDARIES. See Fall v. Easton, 215 U.S. 1 (1909); see also 5 Opposition, p. 5-6. Court rejects Movant's claim that we will be required to cancel the transfer of title between the Mexican Bank and 6 the Diaz defendants. Rather, we can order the Diaz defendants to create a fideicomiso trust and order them to convey the property to that trust with the estate holding the beneficial interest.

7 AVOIDANCE ACTIONS:

8 The presumption against extraterritoriality is not implicated by this
 9 complaint. Once we re-focus our attention to the correct transfer
 10 (between debtor & H&G), the "center of gravity" is indisputably within the U.S. Both [Diaz] and Kismet agree that we apply the presumption against extraterritoriality only if the "center of gravity"
 lies outside the U.S.

11 REMAINING ISSUES OF FACT

13 The following issues of fact, and no others, remain to be litigated upon the trial:

- 14 1. Whether the transfer avoidable as to Defendant HOWELL & GARDNER was 15 constructively fraudulent or actually fraudulent.
- 16 2. Whether Defendant MR. DIAZ is an immediate or mediate transferee of HOWELL &
 17 GARDNER.
- 18 3. Whether Defendant MS. BARBA is an immediate or mediate transferee of HOWELL &
 19 GARDNER.
- 20 4. Whether Defendant MR. DIAZ took for value, including satisfaction or securing of a 21 present or antecedent debt, in good faith, and without knowledge of the voidability of the transfer to 22 HOWELL & GARDNER.
- 23 5. Whether Defendant MS. BARBA took for value, including satisfaction or securing of 24 a present or antecedent debt, in good faith, and without knowledge of the voidability of the transfer
 25 to HOWELL & GARDNER.
- 26 6. Whether KISMET is barred by laches from the relief it seeks from the DIAZ
 27 DEFENDANTS.

7. Whether KISMET is estopped from the relief it seeks from the DIAZ DEFENDANTS.

REMAINING ISSUES OF LAW

The following issues of law, and no others, remain to be litigated upon the trial:

1. Whether KISMET, as successor in interest to the Trustee, is entitled to avoid the pre-petition purported transfers by the Debtors, MR. ICENOWER AND MRS. ICENOWER, of the Villa Real Property Trust to Defendant Howell & Gardner.

2. Whether KISMET may recover the Villa Property from Defendants MS. BARBA and MR. DIAZ under 11 U.S.C. § 550.

3. Whether a declaratory judgment should issue from the Court that:

a. The purported transfers constitute fraudulent conveyances, should be set aside and/or avoided by the Plaintiff and the Villa Real Property or beneficial interest in the Villa Real Property Trusts may be preserved and recovered pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550 and 551; and

b. Plaintiff is also entitled to avoid the purported transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 544, 548, California Civil Code Section 3439 et seq., California Common Law, and/or California Civil Code Section 3440, and recover from Defendants the Villa Real Property or the beneficial interests in the Villa Real Property Trust pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §550(a).

4. Whether the Preliminary Injunction issued by the Court against MR. DIAZ AND MS. BARBA in this Adversary Proceeding shall become permanent or be dissolved.

ADDITIONAL STIPULATIONS OF THE PARTIES

1. This case shall be tried along with the related adversary proceeding, No. 06-90369.

2. All discovery obtained by either party in this Adversary Proceeding may be used in the Adm. Adv. Proc. No. 06-90369.

3. The Stipulation Regarding Disclosure of Confidential Information between and among MR. DIAZ, MS. BARBA, and the Chapter 7 Trustee entered November 10, 2005 [Docket Entry No. 102] is adopted by KISMET, as amended to the effect that Adv. Proc. No. 06-90369 shall also be deemed included with respect to all references made therein to this Adversary Proceeding.

4. Any English translation of a Spanish original document shall be properly authenticated as an exact and accurate translation of the Spanish original where it is duly certified as such under a written Certification and seal by an Expert Translator in the English and Spanish languages who is registered by a judicial district of Mexico. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties otherwise reserve all rights to dispute the authenticity of the underlying Spanish original document.

ADDITIONAL MATTERS REGARDING TRIAL PROCEDURES

1. KISMET contends that this proceeding is governed entirely by U.S. law, and thus does not propose to introduce or raise any issues about a foreign country's law, except to the extent that a rebuttal is necessary to issues of a foreign country's law by DIAZ DEFENDANTS, in respect to which KISMET reserves all rights.

2. KISMET has proposed that that KISMET'S claims against the following defendants shall be severed from this trial and adjudicated separately at a later date:

(a) Defendant Western Financial Assets, Inc. ("WESTERN"), a Nevada corporation, which has at times and for certain purposes used the following address: 5828 W. Sweet Drive, Visalia, California 93291.

(b) Defendant Buckeye International Funding, Inc. ("BUCKEYE"), a Nevada corporation, which has at times and for certain purposes used the following address: 5828 W. Sweet Drive, Visalia, California 93291.

(c) Defendant Johnstown Enterprises LLC ("JOHNSTOWN"), a Nevada limited liability corporation, which has at times and for certain purposes used the following address: 5828 W, Sweet Drive, Visalia, California 93291.

(d) Defendant Newark Enterprises, LLC ("NEWARK"), a Nevada limited liability corporation, which has at times and for certain purposes used the following address: 5828 W. Sweet Drive, Visalia, California 93291.

(e) Defendant Columbus Enterprises, LLC ("COLUMBUS"), a Nevada limited liability corporation, which has at times and for certain purposes used the following address: 5828 W. Sweet Drive, Visalia, California 93291.

(f) Defendant Craig Kelley ("KELLEY"), an individual domiciled in Los Angeles, California.

DIAZ DEFENDANTS have refused to so stipulate, and it will be necessary to address this matter at the Pre-Trial Conference.

3. KISMET advises the Court that additional discovery is still ongoing in this Adversary Proceeding, along with the related Adversary Proceeding, 06-90369. Furthermore, KISMET has not been given the opportunity to depose DIAZ DEFENDANTS' Expert Witness(es). Nor has the deposition of ALEX DIAZ been completed. As such, both Kismet and the DIAZ DEFENDANTS reserve all rights to amend and/or supplement (i) this Pre-trial Order, (ii) their respective Exhibit List, and (iii) their respective Witness List as may be necessary and/or appropriate.

The foregoing admissions having been made by the parties, and the parties having specified the foregoing issues of fact and law remaining to be litigated, this order shall supplement the pleadings and govern the course of the trial of this cause, unless modified to prevent manifest injustice.

This case shall not be tried by a jury.

The trial of this case shall not be bifurcated.

KISMET contends that the time estimated for trial is three to four days. The DIAZ

1 DEFENDANTS have advised KISMET that they estimate the time for trial is five days

MEMORANDUM OF DECISION and
ORDER RE: DAMAGES; and

v.

JERRY LEE ICENOWER, et al.,

Defendants.

By Memorandum of Decision and Order filed September 25, 2003, the Court found in plaintiffs' favor and against defendants; and in counterdefendants' favor and against counterclaimants on the counterclaim. The issue of damages remained pending; therefore, plaintiffs were ordered to provide the Court and opposing counsel with their verified calculation of any and all damages sustained in conformity with the Court's Memorandum of Decision and Order. Defendants were given an opportunity to file a response, consistent with the Memorandum of Decision and Order, to plaintiffs' calculation of damages. Plaintiffs filed a reply memorandum. The matter of damages having been fully briefed and finding this matter suitable for determination on the papers submitted and without oral argument pursuant to Civil Local Rule 7.1(d)(1), the Court enters the following Order.

EXHIBIT "D"

Discussion

I. Money Damages

plaintiffs submitted their verified statement of damages on October 14, 2003 to which defendants filed a statement of non-opposition to plaintiffs' damages calculations.¹

In its Memorandum of Decision and Order, the Court found the English Note to be the operative Note. The Note required defendants to pay plaintiffs the principal sum of $550,000.00 plus advances of $192,199.23. Both principal and advances were to bear interest at a rate of 10% per annum. The effective date of the Note was April 1, 1995. Calculated through October 31, 2003, the damages due and owing to plaintiffs are as follows:

Principal	$ 550,000.00
Interest on Principal.	472,083.33
Advances	192,199.23
Interest on Advances	142,547.76
Total Due	$1,356,830.32

2. Prevailing Party

The Court finds and concludes that plaintiffs are the prevailing parties in this action.

17 | Plaintiffs may seek an award of costs under Local Civil Rule 54.1.

18 | 3. Re-registration of Lien

19 As noted above, defendants do not challenge the mathematical calculation of damages
20 presented by plaintiffs. But defendants assert that plaintiffs are not entitled to "other relief" in 21 the form of reconveyance of the title to the Villa property to plaintiffs and/or the re-registration
22 of the prior lien on the Villa. Plaintiffs contend that re-registration of the lien is appropriate
23 relief and such relief was generally requested in their Complaint. The Court concurs.

24 The English Note contained terms requiring a first priority lien to be registered in
25 Mexico. At trial, Icenhower testified that the lien had been registered but was released

Defendants reserve their contentions as to "whether or not such interest was due under the terms of the agreements in issue, and [] all of their claims and contentions with respect to the merits of the action pending a determination of whether or not an appeal will be filed." Defendants' Opposition at 2.

1 pursuant to the April 1, 1996 Agreement with Lonie. Lonie agreed to release the lien on the
2 Villa Property for the purpose of effectuating a proposed sale of property to the World
3 Interactive Network ("WIN"). The February 9, 1996 proposal from Icenhower to Lonie also
4 indicated that the lien would be reinstated if the sale fell through. The sale was not
5 consummated. Based on the evidence presented at trial, the Court found that Lonie did not
6 cancel the requirement to re-register the Note obligation based on an alleged oral agreement
7 with Icenhower. The Court specifically found that the failure to re-register the lien constituted
8 a breach of the Agreement on Note contract requiring the lien to be re-registered if the sale was 9 not completed. The Court further found that between Lonie and Icenhower, the lien was
10 effective and constituted a security interest in Icenhower's rights, title or interest in the Villa
11 and Icenhower breached the agreement to re-register the lien when the WIN transaction failed
12 to go forward. The Court now finds that plaintiffs sought all legally available relief in their
13 Complaint, including the re-registration of the lien. Requiring defendants to re-register the lien
14 will function to secure the damages owed to plaintiffs and is an available and appropriate
15 remedy for plaintiffs.

16 The lien on the Villa property was intended to secure the amount due and owing to 17 plaintiffs. Because the Court has found and concluded that defendants were required under the 18 agreement to re-register the lien in the event the property was not sold, defendants will be
19 required to re-register the first priority lien in Mexico in accordance with the Agreement
20 on Note and the Court's Memorandum of Decision and Order until full payment of the 21 damages the Court has awarded plaintiffs is paid in full. Upon defendants' full payment of 22 damages to plaintiffs, the lien shall be released.

23 Conclusion

24 Based on the foregoing, IT IS ORDERED awarding plaintiffs damages in the amount
25 of $350,000.00 in principal; 10% per annum interest on the principal from April 1, 1995;

26 ...

27 ...

28 ...

1 $192,199.23 in advances; 10% per annum interest on the advances from April 1, 1995.³

2 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendants shall re-register the lien on the Villa
3 property within ten (10) days of the filing of this Order. Defendants shall submit evidence of
4 the re-registration of the lien to plaintiffs within ten (10) days of the registration of the lien.
5 Upon full payment of the damages in this matter, plaintiffs shall cause the lien to be released.

6 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that full payment of the damages awarded shall be
7 made within 60 days of the filing of this Order.

8 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in the event defendants fail to pay to plaintiffs the
9 full damages award within the time provided, defendants shall reconvey the Villa property,
10 free of any encumbrance, claim, lien or liability that has been placed upon the property or
11 occasioned by defendants' actions or inactions, to plaintiffs in accordance with the terms of the 12 parties' underlying agreement.

13 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED directing entry of judgment in plaintiffs' favor and
14 against defendants; and in counterdefendants' favor and against counterclaimants on the 15 counterclaim, and awarding damages to plaintiffs in accordance with this Order.
